

Berlin, 18.10.2018

REFERENCES

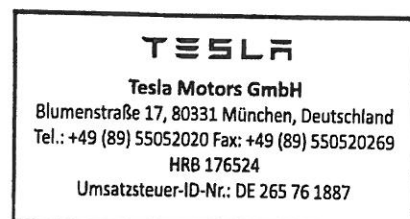

We would like to confirm that Barbara Company from Ruda Śląska, Żeleńskiego Street 2, realized order related in building of transformer station at Kopernika Street in Ciechocinek in connection with the construction of charging stations vehicles TESLA.

The order consisted of two parts electrical as well as civil works according to the received electrical documentations. The main electrical works consisted of:

- Electrical supply and installation new build transformer station (MV cables)
- Supply and installation of transformer station
- Cable connections between transformer station and supercharger and charging posts
- Supply, delivery and connection of LV cabinet (with branch breakers)
- Connection from grid connection point to new transformer station (mv cables)
- All installations according to attached e-design

The works were performed in the period from October 2017 to February 2018 year.

We would like recommend Barbara Company as a professional electric company, providing reliable and complex realization of work in accordance with technical knowledge.

Berlin, February 09 2017

REFERENCES

We would like to confirm that Barbara Company from Ruda Śląska, Żeleńskiego Street 2, realized order related in building of transformer station at Murckowska Street in Katowice in connection with the construction of charging stations vehicles TESLA.

The order consisted of two parts electrical as well as civil works according to the received electrical documentations. The main electrical works consisted of:

- Electrical supply and installation new build transformer station (MV cables)
- Supply and installation of transformer station
- Cable connections between transformer station and supercharger and charging posts
- Supply, delivery and connection of LV cabinet (with branch breakers)
- Connection from grid connection point to new transformer station (mv cables)
- All installations according to attached e-design

The works were performed in the period from April to December 2016 year.

We would like recommend Barbara Company as a professional electric company, providing reliable and complex realization of work in accordance with technical knowledge.

Berlin, 18.10.2018

REFERENCES

We would like to confirm that Barbara Company from Ruda Śląska, Żeleńskiego Street 2, realized order related in building of transformer station at Kopernika Street in Ciechocinek in connection with the construction of charging stations vehicles TESLA.

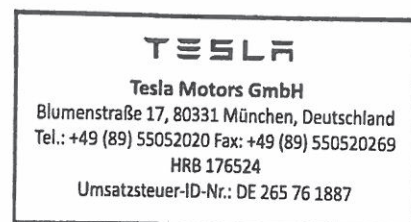

The order consisted of two parts electrical as well as civil works according to the received electrical documentations. The main electrical works consisted of:

- Electrical supply and installation new build transformer station (MV cables)
- Supply and installation of transformer station
- Cable connections between transformer station and supercharger and charging posts
- Supply, delivery and connection of LV cabinet (with branch breakers)
- Connection from grid connection point to new transformer station (mv cables)
- All installations according to attached e-design

The works were performed in the period from October 2017 to February 2018 year.

We would like recommend Barbara Company as a professional electric company, providing reliable and complex realization of work in accordance with technical knowledge.

W. Ochłowski

Berlin, February 09 2017

REFERENCES

We would like to confirm that Barbara Company from Ruda Śląska, Żeleńskiego Street 2, realized order related in building of transformer station with the incorporation of a network SN at Ułańska 5 Street in Poznań in connection with the construction of charging stations vehicle TESLA

The order consisted of two parts electrical as well as civil works according to the received electrical documentations. The main electrical works consisted of:

- Electrical supply and installation new build transformer station (MV cables)
- Supply and installation of transformer station
- Cable connections between transformer station and supercharger and charging posts
- Supply, delivery and connection of LV cabinet (with branch breakers)
- Connection from grid connection point to new transformer station (mv cables)
- All installations according to attached c-design

The works were performed in the period from September to December 2016 year.

We would like recommend Barbara Company as a professional electric company, providing reliable and complex realization of work in accordance with technical knowledge.

Berlin, February 09 2017

REFERENCES

We would like to confirm that Barbara Company from Ruda Śląska, Żeleńskiego Street 2, realized order related in building of charging stations vehicles TESLA in the petrol station (SP81) PKN Orlen in Kostomłoty.

The order consisted of two parts electrical as well as civil works according to the received electrical documentations. The main electrical works consisted of:

- Electrical supply and installation new build transformer station (MV cables)
- Supply and installation of transformer station
- Cable connections between transformer station and supercharger and charging posts
- Supply, delivery and connection of LV cabinet (with branch breakers)
- Connection from grid connection point to new transformer station (mv cables)
- All installations according to attached e-design

The works were performed in the period from December 2015 to February 2016 year.

We would like recommend Barbara Company as a professional electric company, providing reliable and complex realization of work in accordance with technical knowledge.

TESLA

Tesla Motors Netherlands B.V.
Burgemeester Stramanweg 122
1101 EN Amsterdam-Zuidoost
VAT number: 85 05 16 675 B.01
Chamber of Commerce: 52601196

W. Delellan